

YEAR 13 MOCK EXAMS

Over the last two weeks our Year 11 students have worked incredibly hard in their mock examinations. Many of our students have been in early on a morning and stayed after school, participating in revision sessions to ensure that they are fully prepared. They have behaved impeccably in the hall, showing a mature attitude towards these exams. We hope that on the 11th Dec, students will be pleased with their results when they open their envelopes.

Year 13 mock exams start next week, and we know our students have been working hard to prepare for these- good luck, Year 13.

STEM NEWS

This week at STEM club, we had a very special guest speaker from Newcastle University to run a medical workshop. This was an exciting opportunity for the students to get an idea of what skills, qualities and qualifications it takes to be a doctor. We were then taught how to perform CPR on a patient. The final phase of the medical workshop focused on fine motor skills, where the students got some hands-on practice, trying to keep their hands as still as they could as they worked their way around a buzzer circuit.

They really loved their visit from Newcastle University and cannot wait for the next guest speaker to visit STEM club!

Coming Soon to the Library

Miss Horth is constantly adding new books to the library shelves. Have a look at a couple of books which will be available to borrow from next week.

Sometimes I was jealous of the monster of Frankenstein. I grew up believing my father cared more for him than he did for me. And was I wrong?

Maggie Walton's father has dedicated his life to a single pursuit: hunting down the monster created by Victor Frankenstein. It has cost Maggie and her family everything - and now her father is staking everything on one last voyage to the Arctic, with Maggie secretly in tow, where he hopes to find the monster at last.

But there they make a shocking discovery: Frankenstein's monster has a son...

I did not choose this fate. But I will not walk away from it.

Children have been disappearing from across Menaiya for longer than Amraeya can remember. When her friend's sister is snatched, Rae knows she can't look away any longer - even if that means seeking answers from the royal court, where her country upbringing and clubfoot will only invite ridicule.

Yet at court she discovers an ally in the foreign princess, Alyrra, who recruits her as an attendant. So Rae begins to seek answers in the dark city streets, finding unexpected help in a thief with secrets of his own. But treachery runs deep, and the more Rae uncovers, the more she endangers the kingdom itself.
